Hello!

The last two months have been an exciting whirlwind of activity for us. As you may have seen in our recent announcement, our Monthly Subscription CD Program and our new website www.themarygroup.com are up and off the ground!

We are so thrilled about these two efforts coming into fruition. We have been seeking ways to assure that friends (long time, new and yet unmet by us) across the world are able to benefit from all of the wisdom, insight and intrinsic, in depth understanding that Mary brings to us everyday and the monthly CD subscription program certainly hits the mark on meeting this desire. It always gives me such pleasure to jump into a friends car to find a collection of Mary's recordings there or to be talking with friends on the phone and hearing Mary's words streaming in the background. I truly love that hearts are opening, minds are expanding, souls and spirits are souring, and lives are transforming as a result of sharing Mary with all of you and then you sharing them with others whom you love and those individuals sharing Mary with those they love and so on and so on and so on. Makes my heart feel rich and warmed with pure love and gratitude.

We all have within us, so much good to offer. So much love to share. Makes me wonder why any of us spend one moment being curt or unhappy. Imagine for a moment, always...ALWAYS leading with love. Always offering to every situation our best, our gift, our true nurturing and embrace of ourselves and one another.

Spending so much time with Mary and their beautiful and certainly often humorous words of simple and extraordinary wisdom, has been such a gift to me in guiding my choosing which leads me to a very deliberate, self aware and delicious life. I am so filled with delight that this is something I have to offer to you and others as I walk through this pass with life. As Mary would say..."It is soooooooooooooo good." Thank you for traveling with me and sharing your gifts, your beauty with me also!

With Deepest Love and Affection for the Essence of You in My Life,
Jacque

Living Without Edges II

January 16 - 24, 2010

Join us for an amazing journey into this tropical paradise and your life!

Come enjoy breathtaking views, incredible weather, nature's offerings of rain forest, beaches, rumbling volcanoes, natural hot springs, and howler monkeys along with colorful shops, fabulous food and Pura Vida (translated as "Pure Life" - or as Steve says it: "Put Your Feet Up!"). Best of all - spend hours and hours of direct conversation with Mary, experiencing the complete infinity of Living Without Edges. We invite you to become part of an extraordinary group of fabulously spirited, manifesting, joyful people who along with you, did not come here to be ordinary.

ADVENTURE HIGHLIGHTS

Rancho Margot - Four Beautiful Days at the foot of the Arenol Volcano and on the edge of Lake Arenol Immersed in Soul Opening Conversation with

Mary and Experiencing our Edgelessness through Adventure Activities and Deep Relaxation

For four days, (sunrise to stars) we will totally immerse ourselves into the Magic and Wisdom of Spirit, Self and One Another as we explore our personal dreams and blow wide open the gates to the manifestation of their fulfillment. This retreat offers a life-changing opportunity to experience extensive, intensive, focused time with Mary complemented by the precious, powerful energy that pulses through the Pristine Nature of Costa Rica.

This will be a truly fantastic experience for all of us. The plan is to be enclosed by four walls only when we sleep, although there will be some hammocks available for those who just can't be contained even in slumber.

Sprinkled into these four days to compliment our time with Mary will be opportunities for Yoga, Quiet spaces of Solitude for Journaling and Adventure Tours including opportunities for Kayaking, Horseback Riding, Waterfall Repelling, Zip Lining over the Rainforest, Hiking the Volcano, and Deeply Relaxing into Delicious Hot Springs. Of course, there will also be ample fabulous meals to delight your divine relationship with delicious Cuisine.

Nosara, Costa Rica - Where we continue our Glorious Experience of Sinking in with Mary, Taking in the Beauty and Magnificence of the Beaches and Sunsets, Interacting with Nature, Self Nurturing and Play, Play, Play..

We will continue on our journey to Edgelessness with Mary in a newly constructed Open Air Rancho suspended in the midst of the Dry Rain Forest. The sounds and activity of the jungle will surround us and the monkeys might even join us. There will be stunning moments of extraordinary beauty as we take in the sun setting over the ocean offering us the experience of it's last flash of brilliant color just before it sinks completely into Edgelessness opening us to the star filled night skies of Costa Rica.

We will also enjoy Shaman Walks, Opportunities for Massage, Surfing, a Beach Party and Bon Fire, Soaking up the local color with a night of dancing, possibly slip in a little ATV exploration of the area and, yes, shopping for those who wish to find little treasures of Costa Rica to accompany you back home.

Article Headline

Hello to you ,

We are very delighted to meet you here in these words. May the love in them swirl through your heart and ignite your song. The song that lives within you. The delightful accurate expression of you which reflects the exquisite rhythm through which you stream yourself into your world.

There is a story of a tradition in your world in which when a mother-to-be is reaching the end of her role in carrying her child within her, she goes with the grandmother out into the wilderness to be with nature, in silence, while she awaits the song of her child to enter her awareness. This song is then sung on very special occasions throughout the birthed child's lifetime...When they are born, when they marry, when they give birth and when they die. The only other time that the community comes together to sing this song is if the person whom it belongs to does something to harm another and therefore themselves. They gather in circle around the person and lovingly sing them their song to remind them of who they are so that they may come back into their own original love and release themselves from whatever was moving inside of them that had resulted in them to choosing to offer harm.

This tradition does not believe in judgment and punishment to transform a situation. Instead they recognize the power of love and belief in others to bring about the change that is desired and beckoned.

Often we witness humans judging, berating and punishing themselves and others for harmful behaviors instead of looking within themselves and others to reach behind the detail of the harmful action or words to find the truth or the need within that wants to be expressed or seen. We joyfully encourage you to consider taking a breath before responding to any moment, whether it is one that emanates the feeling of harm or not, to discover what is begging to be loved. Begin with yourself. Make your apologies from your remembered infinite love, not your guilt or shame. Then offer others the opportunity to love themselves more in the space of their pain so you may all be free.

That's a Song the Whole World Can Dance To!

Whistling Your Tune,
Mary

Dear Friends,

We do not know how more love and gratitude can live in our hearts then there is in there right now and yet we openly and enthusiastically invite it. We offer you our deepest and most radiant love in return. May it hit all of your spaces and remind you of how truly important it is that you are here sharing your own unique design with the world.

Loving the "fingerprints" you leave within us.

Edgeless Love,
Don and Jacque
